Hillsborough County Supervisor of Elections Craig Latimer recognized VoteHillsborough Art and Voter Registration contest winners at yesterday's School Board meeting.

VoteHillsborough Voter Registration Contest

The Supervisor of Elections Office held voter registration drives in high schools in the fall and spring. The schools with the most successful voter registration drives (based on percentage of senior class) were:

- 1st Place: Plant City High School
- 2nd Place: Howard W. Blake High School
- 3rd Place: Spoto High School

VoteHillsborough Art Contest

Supervisor Latimer challenged elementary and middle school students to design a new 'Future Voter' sticker to encourage young people to learn more about voting and elections. The first place stickers are being handed out during community outreach events.
